Meeting Minutes

Meeting opened with prayer and pledge

Minutes from November were reviewed. Eric Schneider motioned to accept minutes and Suzi Scheper 2nd. Motion carried.

Treasurer- Ken Dubuc reviewed the financial report. We are currently sitting on a $4k balance in our acct. Checks have been written for Basketball and Cheer ($2200). Motion by Jim Osburg to accept financial report and 2nd by Eric Schnieder. Motion carried.

Membership- 165 current members. 28 attended November meeting.

Equipment- Jeff Ware reported still working on cleaning out the equipment room.

Awards- All rosters have been submitted- need to think about dinner ideas for next year.

Volleyball- No report.

Cross Country- No report.

Soccer- Sign ups will be in Jan-Feb for Spring soccer with the deadline being 2/15. Looking for groups or organizations to run concessions in the Spring. Good way to make some money as a fundraiser for your group.

Basketball- Suzi Scheper and Gary Gabbard reported that the season is up and moving for both boys and girls. All is going smoothly.

Cheerleading- Squads will be attending the 6th grade boys games to cheer at. They will alternate each week between them.

Baseball- Doug Uhlenbrock reported that the cost for knothole has been increased. The club may want to reevaluate the fees for sign ups in the Spring to offset some of the cost to the club. Sign ups will be on or prior to January 16. Visit knothole22.com for additional details.

Softball- No report

Old Business

The gym floor will be sealed 12/22 and 12/23 and additional volunteers will be helpful. Candle forms have been collected and the candles will be distributed prior to the holiday. Suzi Scheper thanked everyone who assisted in the Terri Krebs event. It was a great success.

New Business

There is a need for workers to help with Father Heitzman's brunch this Sunday after the noon Mass.

Gary Gabbard proposed the club re-evaluate all league fees and membership fees. After some discussion the issue will be looked at by the board and Coordinators after the season and prior to next year sign ups. 1/16 and 1/17 will be the dates for Spring sign ups after all Masses

Coaches need to collect information for the Mustang classic and forward to Rick Mariani prior to 1/9. It will be difficult to get our program completed if the information is not submitted by that date. Michael Myers will contact teams for their team pictures. We are still in need of someone to head up the opening ceremony for the Mustang classic.

Stag door prizes are needed. Any ideas or contributions can be brought in to either Ken or the Athletic Club Board.

Motion by Gary Gabbard 2nd by Andy Doeker to spend $50 for 2nd grade girls to join a b-ball league. Motion passed 11-6.

Motion to adjourn made by Andy Bertsch, 2nd by Andy Doeker. Motion carried.
